Meeting our Local Favourites - Bars

Sebastyan's Bar

Ground Floor, Hotel Grand Chancellor Adelaide

You don't need to step outside to get a good drink! Seb's Bar has an extensive list of South Australian beers, wines and spirits, set in an informal setting to meet, mingle or just relax with that special tonic. Daily drink and food specials are available with most large events streamed on the big screen. The bar is open till late so it might also be just what you need after a late night meeting.

Maybe Mae

15 Peel St. Adelaide

Wander into a tiny tunnel connecting two of Adelaide's busiest laneways, take the stairs down to a timber wall and push somewhere in the middle. A door will open and take you back to the 1950's. Maybe Mae is a cosy, cocktail lounge with large booths and a bar in the middle so you can watch the bartenders perform their cocktail magic! You can pick off the menu, or give them free reign to create a masterpiece.

Hains & Co

23 Gilbert Pl. Adelaide

Tucked in next to our sister Hotel off Currie St, you will find Hains & Co. A little bar that has earned itself quite the reputation over the past few years, filled high with the finest spirits, plush leather booths and nautical inspired trinkets. On a busy night, the clientele spill out onto Gilbert Place, bringing a great atmosphere to the laneway and drawing even more of a crowd into our fast-growing laneway culture.

2KW

2 King William St. Adelaide

Eight floors atop an old bank building, you will find 2KW where you can enjoy the panoramic views of Adelaide's north with cocktail in hand. There is an extensive drinks menu and delicious food available, some of which is available outside in the bar, but pop inside to the restaurant for the full menu. It is one of the best venues in Adelaide to watch the sun go down with an aperitif in-hand.

Meeting our Local Favourites - Restaurants

Gondola Gondala

1 Peel St. Adelaide

Asian Fusion at its best! A twist on Vietnamese and Thai dishes, with a hint of Japan thrown in. Simply reading the menu will have you salivating, but the staff will help you choose your dishes. The interior is a combination of a bustling Asian food market and industrial design, complementing the menu perfectly. The drinks list is extensive in itself, so you can settle in and leisurely make your way through the food menu.

Rigoni's

27 Leigh St. Adelaide

Rigoni's Bistro is a unique Adelaide dining institution, serving the classic Italian dishes alongside modern Italian inspired cuisine. They have a strong focus on supporting local business with the majority of their produce being sourced locally or nationally. Positioned in the middle of a busy laneway, makes it a great place for lunch or a relaxing dinner. It is one of the leaders in the Adelaide food scene and well worth a visit.

Bistro Sixty5

Mezzanine Floor - Hotel Grand Chancellor Adelaide

Bistro Sixty5 is the perfect way to start your day with our buffet breakfast. Then, if you don't want to go out after your busy day, try something off our delicious dinner menu. Focusing on quintessential South Australian fare with locally sourced produce, all guests can experience the very best South Australia has to offer without leaving the front doors. We also have special dietary menus with great options to try.

Bread & Bone

15 Peel St. Adelaide

Hidden away down the tunnel that links Peel and Leigh St, lies this little burger joint above Maybe Mae. However, it is more than just a burger joint, earning itself a big reputation for some of the best burgers in Adelaide. There are also steaks and ribs from the wood grill that are bursting with flavour! It's always full Friday and Saturday nights, so you might have to wait for a table, but it's worth the wait, and you can wait downstairs with a drink in hand!

Suggested Itinerary

One of the many great things about Adelaide is its accessibility. One minute you're in a bustling, exciting city and then in 20 minutes time you can be relaxing in the sun on some of the world's most beautiful beaches.

If you only have limited leisure time you might like to include one or more of the following experiences:

Looking for original works of art - The Jam Factory tucked in behind the Rockford Hotel

Design lovers should pop into Jam Factory where you can browse through the extensive range of hand crafted ceramics, glassware, jewellery and other collectables made by leading Australian artists and designers.

Lunch at Adelaide Central Market

Since 1870, Adelaide Central Market has been at the epicentre of South Australia's foodie culture. It's a vibrant, busy place filled with cafés, cheese shops, bakeries, patisseries, fruit and vegetable stalls, meat and seafood outlets, and dozens of artisan food producers selling everything from local olive oil to old-fashioned lollies.

A drop of wine tasting

Luckily for you, the iconic Penfolds vineyards and its Magill Estate cellar door are just a 15-minute drive from the centre of Adelaide. Penfolds offers you the opportunity to taste some of South Australia's finest wines.

Dinner Time

Select from one of our favourite eating places, all within a short walk from our front door. The choice is huge, select from Moroccan, Indian, Spanish, Mexican, Korean, Serbian.....the list goes on.
